APPENDIX 1
NEGAHNEEWIN COUNCIL VISION

10 Year Vision (2020 – 2030)

Preamble

Confederation College is situated on the shores of Lake Superior which is the traditional land of Indigenous peoples. This historical meeting place called Anemkii Wajiw enabled Indigenous peoples to gather for trade, alliance-building and decision-making, with the waters of the Great Lakes providing a means of connection. Upon the arrival of European settlers these waterways supported the intercultural exchange that occurred. Today, Indigenous peoples and Canadians are coming to terms with the legacy of colonialism. The prospect of renewed relationships and reconciliation processes are ongoing. It is against this backdrop that Confederation College acknowledges that it is on Indigenous land. In recognition of this colonial history, Confederation College is embarking on renewed relationships with Indigenous peoples as partners for change in education.

The Council states that the name of the College, in particular the word "Confederation" reflects Canada's colonial legacy and as such gives rise to the necessity of working together to decolonize the College. The national Truth and Reconciliation Commission (2015) describes "the cultural genocide" of Indigenous people throughout Canadian history as a historic injustice that must be addressed. The Council calls upon the College to demonstrate their responsibility to work towards the decolonization of this institution. In renewing their commitment to the Council's vision, the College as a community is a partner in reconciliation.

Outcomes for Indigenous Students:

1. Indigenous students will be self-determining in achieving educational success.
2. Indigenous students will be affirmed in a safe, inclusive and engaging learning environment.
3. Indigenous students will graduate with a vision for mino bimaadiziwin.*

Outcomes for All Students:

1. All students of Confederation College will leave as global citizens with an understanding of Indigenous world views.
2. All students will respect and celebrate diversity towards social justice.

Building Common Ground:

We believe that these outcomes will be realized when Indigenous Peoples and Canadian citizens build common ground through a mutual understanding of history, a shared vocabulary and a rich dialogue. Confederation College will reflect this reality when:

1. There is recognition that Indigenous knowledges, languages and cultural practices that inform the Negahneewin Vision are foundational to Confederation College.
2. Indigenous-centred space is created and reflected across Confederation College.
3. Indigenous Knowledge infuses all curricula.
4. Indigenous world views and principles are adopted by Confederation College towards a healthy and sustainable Northwestern Ontario.

*The meaning of mino bimaadiziwin is "a good life" in the Anishinaabe language.
